SALUTATION

Twenty years are gone since EUROCLASSICA was created in Nimes in 1991. The Project started with 12 associations and little by little it has been growing. We are now more than 20 countries involved.

ACADEMIA AESTIVA (Greece), ACADEMIA HOMERICA, ACADEMIA LATINA, ACADEMIA RAGUSINA, ACADEMIA SAGUNTINA have been developed since then. Students, teachers, and scholars from different countries of Europe have met and worked together on a specific topic in different countries. EUROPEAN CURRICULUM in GREEK and LATIN, leading to a European certificate at 4 different levels is being developed for the first two years giving the students a chance to participate in a project of European dimension.

CLASSICS TEACHING in EUROPE together with EUROPATRIA and EUROPEAN SYMBOLS are multicultural teaching material extremely useful in order to analyse the situation of classics in Europe and to underline the European dimension of Classical Studies.

20 ANNUAL CONFERENCES together with 20 General Assemblies have lead to many archaeological sites, to many papers concerning classical tradition in each country, and best of all, to meet colleagues devoted to classics all over Europe.

EUROCLASSICA has supported several national associations in their struggle against the Ministry of Education each time a new change occurs in the curriculum. This particular year Russia and Spain have been supported and finally classical subjects will still exist and be effectively able to be taken by the students.
both at public and private schools. Departments of Classics at Universities will not close.

We are still looking for our own place inside the European institutions; we are still unknown by many colleagues in our own countries; we still need young people to join us and to make more dynamic our daily work. We also should be in touch with some other associations in the world away from Europe. The link we have just established with Egypt will be no doubt a very positive bridge to the East.

We are still facing a time of crisis. Let us fight enthusiastically and, no doubt, we shall overcome and we finally will reach the Ithaca of our dreams.

Dear friends, dear colleagues.
I hope you have enjoyed very relaxing and rejuvenating summer holidays. Since September 1st last year, all the members of the Committee have been working hard. Here is the report for the period September 2011–July 2012. I am extremely worried, both as president and treasurer, about the financial situation. Red alarm! Danger ahead!

1- Associations not paying the annual fee
The decisions taken by the Executive Committee (EC) at our meeting on February 2nd were executed. In fact there were answers from Luxembourg, Greece, Poland, and United Kingdom. No answer at all from Bulgaria, Hungary and Serbia. Answers from Poland and U.K. seemed at first to be absolutely positive. They assured us that they were ready to pay their delayed contributions. Poland assumed they had passed a bad economic situation but at that moment (March 2012) they were ready to update their payments. Time passed and nothing happened. So I asked again (end of May 2012) No answer has been received up to this moment (August 20th, 2012). Concerning UK, a new email from the treasurer offered a quite different point of view. She said that a discussion inside JACT would take place in order to rearrange and discuss the relationship between JACT and EUROCLASSICA. After a few days a new mail was sent from JACT, saying that David Taylor would represent them trying to give continuity. Unfortunately they could not afford to pay for the past three years, but they were determined to pay for the current year and the following. Of course that was not the desired solution, but it was better than nothing. The payment was made in June 2012. As for Greece, they claimed that they have reduced the rate because of the critical economic situation and then seemed willing to be back and to update their contribution. I informed them about the decision of the EC: we could submit the Greek proposal to the General Assembly. Yet I reminded the President of Hetaireia Ellenon Philologon that half a contribution would also mean that another Greek association could be admitted in Euroclassica. Greece does not actually fit into the constitutional exceptions; it is not a former eastern country, it is not an official bilingual country (Belgium), and they have a national association, not as in Italy where a national association does not exist. Italy pays reduced rate but may have another association representing Italy too. I explained all these details in a detailed letter to Prof. Xanthaki. She answered without mentioning any of my remarks but complaining instead about our fees. She claimed that the contribution to FIEC amounts 110 Euros, but in the SEEC budget it is written 450 Euros... Luxembourg answered too; the association is practically nonexistent at this moment, but its presence inside EUROCLASSICA is necessary in order to solve some legal problems (cf. infra 5.-). So I suggest waiting a little before taking a final decision, and being patient until we can find a solution. Edouard Wolter is taking a positive attitude.

2 - Website
We had contacts with Andreas and Peter in order to rearrange the website. At the moment the names and faces of the new members of the committee are available. A proposal to enter some of the social networking sites (Facebook) must be discussed. A new version of the logo has been produced. The design has not been changed but graphically improved. Andreas and Peter will present a project of the new website in Vilnius.

3 – Newsletter
It was printed and distributed in due time. Thanks to Christine Haller for her efficient work at the lay out. The EC in Madrid proposed to print fewer copies in 2013 in order to save money.

4 - New members
Contacts have been made with CyprusPhilologists. Their answer sending information about the association was positively accepted by the EC in the meeting held at Madrid in February. I wrote to them again saying that they would be welcome to come to Vilnius but I have not had any news since then. I have spoken to the secretary, Valentina Saltet, at the beginning of August. She confirmed their interest to join us; the president would confirm her words again in a written message. Up to this moment nothing further has happened, but I hope the Cyprus association will become a new member from January 2013. I will propose the approval of its inclusion into EUROCLASSICA. I will request by phone up to August 29th in order to have a full confirmation.

Some progress have been made in order to get the Egyptian Association of Classical Studies as associated member (Prof. Etman to be contact link) together with the Academia Vivarium Novum in Italy (Prof L Miraglia to be contact link) Those contacts have been made by myself personally in March and April. Their acceptance as associated members will be submitted to the Executive Committee on August 30th, and if approved, to the General Assembly. Nothing has been decided about that at this moment

5 - Status of EUROCLASSICA
Contacts in order to get official information about the status of our Federation have been made in Spanish Inner Office Ministry. The solution is difficult, but they suggested that an open, flexible rule of procedure, developing the original statutes in order to make adaptations and eventually small detail changes, should save trouble, money, and effort. A specialised law firm confirms the suggestion of the Ministry. Anyway it does not solve the main problem concerning the fiscal number of EUROCLASSICA that must compulsorily involve Luxembourg, unless we remake and refound the full Federation. A fiscal number is absolutely necessary to receive subsidies and money from European institutions, and to open a bank account nowadays in any European country. As incredible as it seems to be, there is not a European archive of European dimension associations as ours.
Ramon has contacted a member of the European parliament who has made a certain number of suggestions in order to rearrange our constitution if necessary.
Ramon collected all the suggestions in a document that was dropped in the Madrid meeting of the Executive Committee because of its complexity. Those adaptations and changes should be adopted once we will solve definitively the problem of the legal and fiscal situation of our federation. A research project was launched in order to explore the fiscal situation of similar associations (FIEC, EUROCLIO, EUROSOPIA) The Executive decided for the moment to leave things as they are. I am in touch with a lawyer working at the European Curia in Luxembourg. A next meeting in autumn involving Edouard Wolter, myself, and the mentioned barrister, Mr. Gutierrez, will take place in order to clarify the situation and to achieve, if possible, a lasting solution.

6 - European Institutions
Contacts have been made with Bertrand Pajot, a member of the European Commission (Education Division).
Good words have been exchanged, but nothing positive. I wrote a letter to a Spanish member of the European Parliament, Mrs. Pilar del Castillo, the former minister of Education in the government who reintroduced Latin in Secondary Compulsory Education in Spain in 2008. Unfortunately I had no answer at all.
Some members linked to UNESCO have been contacted too. No doubt the Council of Europe is the proper door to be knocked again. I will ask the General Assembly if it agrees to a new application to be made in 2013. It would be very convenient for EUROCLASSICA to have a definitive fixed place inside the European educational institutions. From the European programs office of the Spanish Ministry of Education that I contacted in January they suggested I should apply for money for some of our activities, mostly for our Academiae and our annual Conference. As the members of the Ministry changed in April, I have fixed an appointment with the new responsible persons on September 21st.

7 - Academiae
Even if this academic year was especially difficult in Europe, both Academia Homerica and Academia Latina were successfully achieved. Thanks must be given to the efforts of Maria Eleutheria Giatrakou and Christine Haller who have overcome the hard situation of Greece and were able to join again more than 100 participants in Chios island. On the other hand the great determination of Eva Tarandi, Lisbeth Berkvens, and Barbara Pokorna must be praised once again.
They insisted on running the Academia Latina even if there were only 11 students. They needed an extra budget that the EC gave them in order to help to make possible the developing of this fine activity addressed to students of Latin.
We must disseminate the information in our countries and underline these activities on our website.
A new summer school, Academia Saguntina, was tested in Saguntum dedicated to Classical Civilisation linked to the workshops of the Domus Baebia Saguntina that were presented in Madrid Conference 2010. The morning activities were completed with workshops devoted to Greek Drama in the evening. The Ancient Roman Theatre of Saguntum was opened especially for the delivery of certificates and the final presentation. 40 students from Italy and different regions of Spain participated in this pilot edition. For the next year the problem of the language will be solved. The manner of participating should be different from the one used in Academia Latina and in Academia Homerica. Students should come together with a teacher. It will be desirable to involve two more countries next year besides Italy and Spain. The Domus Baebia is also ready to organise seminars for teachers from all European countries. A European intensive refresher course lasting from Friday to Sunday can be organised either in November 2012 or in February 2013.

8 – Curriculum
A report will be offered by Alfred Reitermayer as he asked for 30 minutes in the last point of the General Assembly. This is an interesting activity. The Executive has gathered detailed information containing all the efforts made by Alfred in order to achieve both curricula, and to present them to European authorities. This great effort must be recognised and praised once again. This year, Elena Ermolaeva and I have been working in preparing tests for Ancient Greek. Even so, the practical developing of the full project - QUIS, QUID, QUANDO, UBI, QUOMODO, QUANTO, QUIBUS AUXILIIS - does not seem to be satisfactory. A calm, detailed dialogue about the issue is absolutely necessary in order to make the project go ahead successfully.

9 - Next conference
The 2013 Conference will take place in Lisbon (Portugal): the provisional programme will be presented by Francisco Oliveira at Vilnius.

10 – Publications
Last but not least I am glad to make you know that both EUROPATRIA and EUROSYMBOLS are going ahead. Both responsible, Francisco Oliveira and Andreas Thiel will inform in detail along the next General Assembly.

Thanks very much for your attention.

José-Luís Navarro

AGENDA
1. Opening of the meeting and adoption of the agenda
The meeting opened at 15.15. The President welcomed the meeting and thanked the committee for organizing the 2012 Conference. The agenda is not contested, but in order for everyone to be able to vote on the budget with full information, it is proposed to replace item 4 (Financial Report) with item 7 (Newsletter). This is accepted.

2. Report of the 2011 General Assembly in Paris
The minutes of the General Assembly in 2011 are passed with thanks to Paul Ieven for his work as Secretary for 8 years.

3. President's Report
As everyone has received the report, the President (JN) focuses on issues that require explanation, discussion and/or adoption.
Euroclassica situation: Since Euroclassica was created; the statutes have been filed in Luxembourg. But today the Luxembourg association (Pro Latinitate) which guaranteed the deposit is suspended. However, we still need an exact reference address as well as a tax number to open a bank account, for example, into which subsidies or other deposits could be placed in the name of Euroclassica. The President will soon meet Edouard Wolter (honorary president of Euroclassica and former member Pro Latinitate) and a specialist in European law in Luxembourg to settle this issue once and for all. A little patience is needed.
Council of Europe: The President asks the meeting if it thinks that a new request for admission to the Council of Europe should be submitted in 2013. He is of the opinion that Euroclassica must find a place among the European institutions. Alfred Reitermayer (AR) whose request was refused two years ago does not think it necessary to join up now. Euroclassica may be associated with projects without being a member. He recalls that being part of the Council of Europe also implies obligations: attendance 3 or 4 times a year at conferences, which leads to costs each time. It should also address the question of who should receive any correspondence from the Council of Europe. The question is left open.

4. Newsletter 2013
The printing and mailing of the annual Newsletter amounts annually to about 1,000 Euros. Printed copies of the newsletter are essential for external presentation and for lobbying, but for internal use among the member associations publication of the newsletter on the website may be sufficient. As we are forced to make savings, the proposal to reduce the number of copies to 100, of which a minimum number will be sent to associations (some say they are already able to do without), is accepted. This will make a saving of at least 400 Euros. Those who want to have a higher number of copies (at their own expense) should contact the editor directly.

5. Resignation of certain associations
For the entire question, the President refers to his report. He noted that the associations considered to be resigning have not responded after receiving nine reminders about their contributions (the most recent in February 2012). They will receive a letter indicating that they will be considered to have withdrawn, but offering them the opportunity to be included (at their request) among associate members. These associations are: Hungarian, Bulgarian and Serbian.

Some organizations have responded to the letter sent in February reminding them of their situation. JACT (GB) after adopting two different positions finally paid only for 2012 and pledged to do so in the future. It is noted in passing that British students participated in both the 2012 Academiae ... John Thorley (GB), first president of Euroclassica who was present at this year’s congress, suggests that a letter of regret should be sent to JACT as it was felt that the association can afford the subscription! JN will do this without delay as the position taken is really not the solution we expected. However, if the president’s efforts fail, according to the committee’s decision, this solution would be acceptable as it would perhaps also unblock the situation with other associations. The Assembly supports the efforts of the President and comes round to the final views of the Committee. After giving the impression of being on the verge of fulfilling their subscription, Poland has not been heard from since April. Its contribution is set at 150 Euros because it is a former country of the east. We could apply the same rule as for JACT provided they pay before the end of the year.

Greece wanted to pay a fee of 150 Euros due to the crisis, but it does not meet statutory requirements for such a system. The President of the Etaireia hellenon philologon did not respond to the explanations of JN. The association could be placed on the same footing as the British and Polish, in case of non-response to this proposal; the association could finally become an associate member, which will cost nothing, but also deprive it of any prerogative.
For the moment, we cannot take any action over Luxembourg (see above). It is necessary to wait until the end of the year and to have a continued existence from the legal standpoint. Pro Latinitate must also address the question of its continued existence.

6. New Members - Associate Members
Contacts had been established with the Cypriot association who had shown interest in being part of Euroclassica, but then there was no follow-up. The Cypriots claim that they still want to join but have not made a formal application. A delay is granted until the end of the year for them to reach their decision and for them to be possibly considered a member in 2013.

Malta and Latvia were represented at the Vilnius conference and expressed interest. The idea of a Baltic federation uniting the Estonian and Latvian associations found some support and may be the way ahead. Lithuania would probably not part of the federation, but would continue on the path already begun. For Malta, the details are missing but contact will be maintained.

JN had contacts with the Egyptian Association of Classical Philology and Vivarium Novum, an Italian association to revive Latin. The accession of these two institutions as associate members is accepted.

7. Financial Report
Accounts 2011
The accounts show a deficit for the second consecutive year owing to the non-receipt of subscription money and not to overspending the budget. Financial statements for 2011 are approved.

Budget 2013
The 2013 budget, adjusted for previous decisions (pts 4-6) is approved.

8. Academiae
Academia Homerica took place in good conditions despite the difficulties encountered by the host country. Management and participants were satisfied. A detailed report by Maria-Eleftheria Giatrakou has reached the committee.

Eva Tarandi reported in person some problems over the progress of the Academia Latina which was also well received despite the small number of participants. Eva Tarandi thinks that the efforts to find participants and money are so large for the number of students that are assembled only with considerable difficulty, that she thinks seriously she will not repeat the experience. Any successor will receive her support and be able to share the fruits of her experience. The President, while understanding her point of view, begs her not to close the door completely, but for the moment, it is!

A new academy this year dedicated to Spanish and Italian participants was created: Academia Saguntina (390 Euros registration fee) had a pilot phase in early summer. It aims to introduce students to Greco-Roman civilization with the contribution of Domus Baebia (who had convinced the delegates at the Madrid Conference in 2010 of the excellent quality of their workshops). As the AS is not intended primarily for young adults, teachers are not only welcome to accompany their students, but are actually required. The workshops are very practical: you touch, feel and experience. However, to ensure the project's future, we must also solve the problem of language, translators are envisaged, and they must soon come into action.

Weekends are possible training for teachers in November or February, when the tickets are cheap. The registration fee is unbeatable.

The next Academia Ragusina (3rd edition) will be held in Dubrovnik from 22\textsuperscript{nd} to 28\textsuperscript{th} March 2013. Jadranka Bagaric confirms that she will hold the Academia if there are at least 20 entries before the end of January.

9. Website
Peter Glatz outlines the new website. He will consider any suggestions for improvement that are sent to him.

10. European Symbols
The project is almost finished: contributions from Denmark and Spain have arrived; we are still waiting for those of France and Italy. Photocopied drafts are available. The final volume will consist of three chapters including an introduction, followed by contributions by each country and a selection of well-known inscriptions edited to the appropriate level of the students.

11. Europatria
This project is reaching its conclusion too: the volume Europatria will be presented in 2013 at the Lisbon Conference.

12. European curricula
The floor was given to AR who states that we should not confuse the Certificates and Curricula (see Newsletter 2008). These alone are related to Euroclassica, the exams for which are known by the acronyms of ELEX (Latin) and EGEX (Greek).

Last year more than 1000 students participated in the 2011 edition of ELEX and EGEX, some 120 schools in all. There were 67 schools in 8 countries for ELEX Vestibulum (1st level): 714 merits were distributed (gold, silver and bronze combined) or approx. 70%.

For EGEX Vestibulum (1st level), the number of participants was 177 from 13 schools in 6 countries, 85 merits were distributed in total, or 50%. A great success.

Regarding ELEX Janua (2nd level), 235 participants from 13 schools in four countries have entered with 49 awards won, more than 20%.

AR proposes that each country for a few years focuses on Curriculum Vestibulum for Latin and Greek.

There was some discussion over the date of taking the examinations. For AR, the date of 26\textsuperscript{th} September 2012 (Day of Languages) must be maintained, with a tolerance of up to Christmas, and the results to be transmitted until the first days of 2013. Both tests are ready for 2012. Besides, there are enough other examinations that take place between April and June.

AR said that the website ECCL was created at the request of Mr. Martinuc. This is the only site of ancient languages attached to the Council of Europe.

Discussion about the diplomas should subside. The pattern should change every year, but costs are not negligible.

A proposal was made to organize a meeting in Paris on 1st and 2nd November, in order to discuss the issue of Curricula. Each country should participate. Surprisingly to everyone, the proposal is not contested.¹

13. Future Euroclassica conferences

In 2013, the Conference and the General Assembly will be held in Lisbon from 30th August to 1st September. F. Oliveira outlines the programme. In 2014, the meeting should be held in Copenhagen.

14. Other Business

There was no time for any other business.

The meeting was adjourned at 18.00.

Peseux, 5th September, 2012

¹ HOWEVER the meeting will not take place for lack of participants: there was a lack of interest and availability (decision of 02.09.2012).
Procès-verbal de l’Assemblée Générale, Vilnius, 1er septembre 2012

Membres présents :
Le comité : José Luís Navarro, président (E), assisté de Ramón Martinez (E), Christine Haller, secrétaire (CH), Elena Ermolaeva (RU), Nijole Juchneviciene (LIT), Francisco Oliveira (P).
Les délégués suivants : Eva Schough Tarandi (S+Academia Latina), Bärbel Flaig (D), Katri Bügel Jørgensen (DK), Hans Offereins (NL), Hubert Maraite (Bfr.), Christian Laes (B fl.), Gabriela Creția (RO), Sylvie Nourry-Namur (F), John Thorley (GB), Alfred Reitermayer (A), Vesna Dimovska (FYROM), Šime Demo (HR).
Directrices d’Academiae : Jadranka Bagarić (Academia Ragusina); Maria-Eleftheria Giatrakou (Academia Homerica), excusée.

ORDRE DU JOUR
1. Ouverture de la séance et adoption de l’ordre du jour
La séance est ouverte à 15h15. Le président salue l’assemblée et remercie le comité d’organisation de la Conférence 2012. L’ordre du jour n’est pas combattu. Pour être en mesure de voter le budget en connaissance de cause, la proposition d’alterner les points 4 (Rapport financier) et 7 (Newsletter) est acceptée.

Le procès-verbal de l’Assemblée générale 2011 est adopté avec remerciements à Paul Ieven qui a œuvré pendant 8 ans au poste de secrétaire.

3. Rapport du président
Chacun ayant reçu le rapport, le président (JN) se concentre sur les points qui demandent explication, discussion et/ou adoption.
Situation d’Euroclassica : Lors de la création d’Euroclassica, les statuts ont été déposés à Luxembourg. Or aujourd’hui l’association luxembourgeoise (Pro Latinitate) qui garantissait ce dépôt est en veilleuse. Cependant nous avons besoin d’une adresse de référence exacte, de même que d’un numéro fiscal, pour ouvrir, par exemple, un compte bancaire sur lequel pourraient parvenir des subsides ou autres dépôts au nom d’Euroclassica. Le président rencontrera prochainement Edouard Wolter (président honoraire d’Euroclassica et ancien membre de Pro Latinitate) à Luxembourg, ainsi qu’un spécialiste du droit européen afin de régler cette question une fois pour toutes. Patience donc.

régler la question de qui doit recevoir l’éventuel courrier en provenance du Conseil de l’Europe.
Nous gardons la question ouverte.

4. Newsletter 2013
L’impression et l’envoi de la Newsletter annuelle s’élèvent annuellement à quelque 1000 euros. Des copies imprimées de la Newsletter sont indispensables face à l’extérieur, pour le lobbying, mais à l’interne des associations, la publication de la Newsletter sur le site web pourrait pratiquement suffire. Comme nous sommes contraints de faire des économies, la proposition de réduire à 100 le nombre d’exemplaires imprimés dont un nombre minimum sera adressé aux associations (dont certaines déclarent déjà pouvoir s’en passer) est acceptée. Economie prévue : en tout cas 400 euros.

Ceux qui voudront pouvoir disposer d’un nombre d’exemplaires plus élevé (à leurs frais) prendront directement contact avec l’éditeur.

5. Associations démissionnaires
Pour l’ensemble de la question, le président renvoie à son rapport.
Il fait remarquer que les associations considérées comme démissionnaires n’ont pas répondu après réception de 9 rappels de cotisations (le dernier en février). Elles recevront une lettre leur signifiant leur retrait et leur offrant la possibilité de figurer (à leur demande) parmi les membres associés. Il s’agit des associations hongroise, bulgare et serbe.
Certaines associations ont répondu à la lettre envoyée en février leur rappelant leur situation. La JACT (GB) après avoir adopté deux positions différentes a finalement payé pour 2012 seulement et promis de faire de même à l’avenir. On fait remarquer en passant que des étudiants britanniques ont participé aux deux Academiae de 2012… John Thorley (GB), premier président d’Euroclassica, qui assiste cette année aux débats, suggère qu’on envoie une lettre de regrets sentie à la JACT car l’association a les moyens de payer ! JN le fera sans délai car la mise devant le fait accompli n’est vraiment pas la solution qu’on attendait. Cependant, si les efforts du président n’aboutissent pas, selon la décision du comité, cette solution pourrait être acceptée car elle permettrait peut-être de débloquer également la situation avec d’autres associations. L’assemblée soutient la démarche du président et se plierait finalement aux vues du comité.
Après avoir donné l’impression d’être sur le point de s’acquitter de son dû, la Pologne n’a plus donné signe de vie depuis avril. Sa cotisation est fixée à 150 euros puisqu’il s’agit d’un ancien pays de l’est. On pourrait leur appliquer le même régime qu’à la JACT pourvu qu’ils paient avant la fin de l’année.
La Grèce aurait voulu payer une cotisation de 150 euros en raison de la crise, mais elle ne remplit pas statutairement les conditions requises pour un tel régime. La présidente de l’Etaireia hellenon philologon n’a pas répondu aux explications de JN. L’association pourrait être mise sur le même pied que celle des Britanniques et des Polonais ; en cas de non réponse à cette proposition, on lui offrira encore, en dernier recours, de faire partie des membres associés, ce qui ne lui coûtera rien, mais la privera aussi de toute prérogative. Pour le moment, nous ne pouvons pas nous passer du Luxembourg (cf. supra). Il faut attendre la fin de l’année et avoir une existence du point de vue légal. Pro Latinitate doit aussi régler la question de son existence.

6. Nouveaux membres – membres associés
Des contacts avaient été établis avec l’association chypriote qui s’était montrée enthousiaste à l’idée de faire partie d’Euroclassica, puis n’a pas donné suite. Les Chypriotes prétendent toujours vouloir adhérer mais n’ont pas passé aux actes. Un délai leur est accordé jusqu’à la fin de l’année pour manifester leur décision et être éventuellement considérés comme membre en 2013.

Malte et la Lettonie étaient représentées à la conférence de Vilnius et ont manifesté de l’intérêt. L’idée d’une fédération balte réunissant l’Estonie et la Lettonie pourrait rencontrer quelque écho. La Lituanie ne ferait probablement pas partie de cette fédération mais poursuivrait sur la voie déjà engagée.

Pour Malte, les détails manquent, les contacts vont être maintenus. JN a eu des contacts avec l’Association égyptienne de philologie classique et Vivarium Novum, l’académie italienne qui revivifie le latin. L’adhésion de ces deux institutions en tant que membres associés est acceptée.

7. Rapport financier
- Comptes 2011
Les comptes présentent un déficit pour la deuxième année consécutive pour cause de non rentrée d’argent et non pas pour des dépenses non conformes au budget. Les comptes 2011 sont approuvés.
- Budget 2013
Le budget 2013, corrigé en fonction des décisions prises précédemment (pts 4-6), est approuvé.

8. Academiae
L’Academia Homerica s’est déroulée dans de bonnes conditions malgré les difficultés rencontrées par le pays d’accueil. La direction et les participants ont été satisfaits. Un rapport détaillé de Maria-Eleftheria Giatrakou est parvenu au comité.

Eva Tarandi rapporte de vive voix les difficultés et le déroulement de l’Academia latina qui a aussi été enthousiasmante en dépit du petit nombre de participants. Eva Tarandi pense que les efforts consentis pour trouver des participants et de l’argent sont trop grands pour le nombre d’étudiants qu’on arrive péniblement à rassembler ; elle songe très sérieusement à ne pas renouveler l’expérience. Tout successeur aura son soutien et pourra partager les fruits de son expérience. Le président, tout en comprenant son point de vue, la supplie de ne pas fermer complètement la porte. Pour le moment, elle l’est !

Une nouvelle académie, réservée cette année à des participants espagnols et italiens, a vu le jour: l’Academia Saguntina (390 euros de finance d’inscription) a connu une phase pilote au début de l’été. Elle veut introduire les élèves à la civilisation gréco-romaine avec l’apport de la Domus Baebia (qui avait convaincu les délégués de la richesse de ses ateliers lors de la Conférence de Madrid en 2010). Comme l’AS ne s’adresse pas prioritairement à de jeunes adultes, les maîtres accompagnants sont non seulement bienvenus, mais souhaités. Les ateliers sont très pratiques : on touche, on sent, on expérimente. Cependant pour assurer l’avenir de l’entreprise, il faut encore résoudre le problème de la langue ; des traducteurs sont prévus, il faut qu’ils entrent en action. Des weekends de formation sont envisageables pour les enseignants au mois de novembre ou de février, au moment où les billets d’avion sont bon marché. Finance d’inscription défiant toute concurrence.

La prochaine Academia Ragusina (3e édition) se déroulera à Dubrovnik des 22 au 28 mars 2013. Jadranka Bagarić confirmera la tenue de l’Academia si elle réunit au minimum 20 inscriptions avant la fin janvier.

9. Site web

Peter Glatz présente les grandes lignes du nouveau site web. Il tiendra compte des suggestions d’amélioration qui lui sont faites.

10. European Symbols

11. Europatria

Projet touchant à son terme lui aussi, le volume Europatria sera présenté en 2013 lors de la Conférence de Lisbonne.

12. Curricula européens

La parole est donnée à AR qui précise qu’il ne faut pas confondre les Certificats et les Curricula (cf. Newsletter 2008) qui, seuls, sont liés à Euroclassica et dont les examens sont connus sous les acronymes d’ELEX (latin) et d’EGEX (grec). L’année dernière plus de 1000 élèves ont participé à l’édition 2011 d’ELEX et d’EGEX, soit quelque 120 écoles en tout. On dénombre 67 écoles de 8 pays pour ELEX Vestibulum (1er niveau); 714 mérites distribués (or, argent et bronze confondus), soit env. 70%.

Pour EGEX Vestibulum (1er niveau), le nombre de participants s’élève à 177 répartis sur 13 écoles de 6 pays ; 85 mérites distribués en tout, soit 50%. Un grand succès.

En ce qui concerne ELEX Janua (2e niveau), 235 participants de 13 écoles de 4 pays se sont lancés; 49 récompenses obtenues, soit plus de 20%.

AR propose que chaque pays se concentre pendant quelques années sur le Curriculum Vestibulum tant latin que grec.
Des remarques ont été émises quant à la date de passation des examens. Pour AR, la date du 26 septembre 2012 (Journée des langues) doit être maintenue, avec une tolérance allant jusqu’à Noël, les résultats devant être transmis jusqu’aux premiers jours de 2013. Les deux épreuves pour 2012 sont prêtes. D’ailleurs il y a assez d’autres examens qui se déroulent entre avril et juin.

AR rappelle que le site web ECCL a été créé à la demande de M. Martinuc. C’est le seul site de langues anciennes rattaché au Conseil de l’Europe Les remous autour des diplômes devraient s’apaiser. Le motif devrait changer chaque année. Les frais ne sont pas négligeables.

Proposition est faite d’organiser une rencontre à Paris les 1er et 2 novembre prochains, afin de pouvoir discuter de la question des Curricula. Chaque pays devrait participer. Surprenant tout le monde, la proposition n’est pas combattue.

13. Prochaines conférences d’Euroclassica

En 2013, la Conférence et l’Assemblée générale auront lieu à Lisbonne, du 30 août au 1er septembre. F. Oliveira en présente les grandes lignes.

En 2014, la rencontre devrait avoir lieu à Copenhague.

14. Divers

Il n’y en a pas dans le cadre du temps imparti.

La séance est levée à 18h.

Peseux, le 5 septembre 2012

Christine Haller

2 CEPENDANT la rencontre n’aura pas lieu, faute de combattants: l’intérêt et la disponibilité manquent (décision du 02.09.2012).
Aere Perennius

On the 2\textsuperscript{nd} of August we met with our students of the last Academia Latina as we know it now. Young enthusiastic Latin students from Belgium, Germany, Russia, Switerzland and Russia, came to Rome to see and learn. We had a fantastic week and it is a joy to teach and share with a group like this.

The summer school took place in the guest house of the monastery of Padri Teatini, San Andrea della Valle in Rome. The first night we had dinner together and just started getting to know each other.

The first day of the course we started with Horatius: \textit{Exegi monumentum aere perennius} and had a discussion why we chose this poem as theme for this summer course in Rome. We also read parts from Ovid's \textit{Ars Amatoria}, and Horatius: \textit{Ibam forte via sacra} before we left for today's visits: Theatrum Marcelli, Porticus Octavia, Palatium, including a nice lunch picnic, Forum Romanum, Colosseum and Circus Maximus.

This is a student’s (Lisa’s) review of this day. I asked them to write about the day they liked best.

\textit{It's hard to choose one specific day but I've chosen to do it about 3/08. Since I'm very interested in the ages of all the emperors from Caesar till Hadrian, visiting the Colosseum, Forum Romanum, Theatrum Marcelli was very interesting for me. I've been in a couple of places with my school but here I received a lot of extra info and we've visited a lot more things than with school. It gave an impression about the daily life of the Romans. That day we've also read texts of Horace and Ovid, it was the very first time to work in pairs and stuff like that so it was in the beginning a little bit weird but it was easy to adapt. The texts were presented by the teachers in a very enjoyable way. Since they're all very fascinated with what they're giving us the classes were really nice and instructive...it was worth sweating in almost unbearable temperatures. The texts themselves were really funny and it was the perfect subject for a starter. The picnic at the forum was also...} really nice. I also appreciated the day where we could choose what to visit, like that everyone could find something interesting for them.
The second working day we spent in the Villa Borghese Park. This is what Andrea wrote.

Review of a fantastic day in Rome with Academia Latina
On the third day of our week in Rome (4th August), we (10 students and 3 brilliant teachers) visited one of my favourite places in the eternal city: Villa Borghese.
But to start the day correctly, we first had breakfast as usual in the monastery of Sant’Andrea della Valle. What I liked especially, was the market with fresh fruits and vegetables on Campo dei Fiori, just a few minutes away.

As we arrived in the park, after a short ride in the bus, we divided into two groups; one translated the myth of Pluto and Proserpine, the other Apollo and Daphne, both texts from Ovid. This was my favourite lesson of translation, mostly because we sat in the shade of trees in the beautiful park and not in the hot, sticky room in the monastery. What was also great about this choice of texts was that we saw afterwards the stories converted into the fantastic statues of Bernini, which stand in the Galleria Borghese. Our teachers showed us through the whole gallery and picked the most impressive and famous pieces of art for us to look at more closely.

After this highlight, we had time for ourselves and we could spend the evening anywhere we wanted to. On that evening, we visited the Fontana di Trevi and the famous Scalinata di Trinità dei Monti.

With the return to our monastery - unfortunately, we had to be there always before 23.00 - a great day in Rome finished.

Next day the lessons dealt with some passages from Res Gestae Divi Augusti, city planning and urban architecture and a letter of Seneca. After lunch in the monastery we walked the Campus Martius: Ara Pacis, Pantheon, Mausolea Augusti et Hadriani, Piazza Navona, Piazza Montecitorio with the sundial and many other things.
On the 6/8 the program was Ovidius: Polyphemus and Galatea and parts Amor et Psyche by Apuleius and finally a lecture on art and sculpture. After lunch we visited the Villa Farnesina, to see all the beautiful paintings of mythological motives and had walk in Trastevere and we ended by having dinner together in Trastevere.

On the morning next day there were two programs so one part of the group went for a tour to see sculptures and work of the Baroque, Bernini and Borromini and the second half visited San Clemente and the museum of the imperial fora in Trajan’s markets.

In the afternoon there were a lecture on cults and death in connection with buildings, temples graves monuments and text reading from Tacitus and Petronius.

Not to lose any precious time we managed the Capitoline museums before a late dinner…

Last day was a whole day excursion to Ostia. We visited the excavations and the students showed performances, which we had asked them to prepare. They were supposed to do some of the texts we studied during the week so we had one medley of all the texts and one performance in Latin of the passage of the werewolf in Petronius. Excellent work!

In the afternoon we enjoyed a nice swim and had a lovely farewell dinner. On the next day we left Rome with joy and sorrow in our hearts. We had a fantastic week but it is sad to leave each other and Rome and this nice European experience.

Thanks to Liesbeth Berkvens and Barbara Pokorna for working and sharing this with me.

And thanks to all the students and teachers through all the years of Academia Latina, I am now leaving my position as director of Academia Latina.

Eva Schough Tarandi
Report on the Academia Homerica 2012

With really great success and brilliancy took place in Athens, Chios and Oinousses from 6th to 15th July 2012 and for 16th time, the cultural and educational activities of Euroclassica – Academia Homerica, which is under the support and auspices of the President of Greek Democracy.

The participants were mainly Members of the Athens and other Academies, Chancellors, Professors of Universities, doctors, students and scholars wishing to study the Homeric epic poems, to study Greek literature, language, history and civilization in their diachronic process. The origin of the participants was from England, Belgium, Denmark, Greece, Switzerland, Spain, Syria, China, Poland, Russia, Lithuania, Georgia and about 30 students from Cyprus, the Chancellor of the Cyprus University, the Ambassador of Cyprus in Greece, the President of the Foundation of Hellenism and other eminent personalities. The participants stayed in Athens for one night and visited the Acropolis, the New Museum of the Acropolis, the Archaeological Museum.

In Chios, the participants arrived by ship, and they were led to the Hotels and Boarding House of the University. On Sunday, 8 July 2012, was the official opening of the congress at the “HOMERION” Cultural Centre of Chios Municipality. After the salutations of the authorities, the activities of Academia Homerica started with first lecturer Prof. John's Thorley, who impressed the audience as it happens every year. Prof. John Thorley taught the students' session every day with the assistance of a good scholar, Dr. Antonios Makrinos. Three expert professors as well, Mrs. Sophia Salapata, Despina Neofytou, Anastasia Rekouna taught in Session C, professors and students, Modern Greek, history and civilization. Some of the students have arrived in a very high level of Modern Greek; they could attend Modern Greek Literature, as poetry of Konstantinos Kavafis.

The presence of the students from Cyprus was really a unique chance for A.H. The Dancing and Musical team of the Cyprus University inspired and entertained all the participants and the inhabitants of Chios and Oinousses as well. Very outstanding scholars and generally scientists gave very important and original lectures which impressed. The whole program contained visits and educational tours. Before every visit or tour expert co-operators, as Dr. Athina Zacharou – Loutrari explained and presented everything.

The generous Benefactors of Chios did their best to be sponsors in Academia Homerica, and offered in a way of Homeric hospitality, so that A.H. was this year successful, in spite of the economic crisis in the world.

On Sunday 15th, in an atmosphere of great pleasure and happiness, the public attended oral competition of the students, directed by John Thorley. They read in fluency the Homeric epic poems in their own language and impressed the audience. Then the official closing of all the activities took place. All the participants grateful and satisfied enjoyed the closing lunch, wishing to return again to A.H.

Honourably yours,
Marianna Georgountzou – Nikitopoulou
Dr. Athina Zacharou - Loutrari

a) Students' Programme

Students with at least some acquaintance with Homeric/Ancient Greek will have the opportunity to improve their knowledge of Homer’s poems and their historical context on Homer’s homeland!

- Students will attend their lectures and lessons mainly at the Homerion Cultural Centre in Chios (and in different places on the excursion days).
- The programme will be directed by Dr. Astrid Eitel (CH).
- The program will revolve around the reading of Homer, Iliad, 1. Included in these classes will be discussions of the Iliad as rooted within an Oral Tradition: The Role of the Bard, the Invocation of the Muse, Repetition and Formula. Mythological aspects will not be ignored in terms of the roles and attributes of the Greek Gods in the Iliad. Specifically, their interventions in human affairs and epiphanies, as well as their relationships with individual Heroes. With the description of the plague in Iliad 1 as starting point, a short presentation on ancient medicine will be given.
- It will also include lectures and seminars on Homeric topics, Mycenaean and Trojan archaeology, as well as Greek/Chian epigraphy and history.
- Lessons and lectures will be conducted in English.
- The programme also contains educational tours and visits together with the participants of the other sessions.

N.B. A text of Iliad, 1 and vocabulary notes will be sent in advance by e-mail to students who will be attending the Academia Homerica and have sent their e-mail address to Dr. Astrid Eitel (astrid.eitel@gmail.com). Students should bring printed copies of these with them to Greece. It will be useful if they also bring with them a translation of the Iliad into their own language.

b) Scholars’ / Hellenists' Session

Scholars and Hellenists can attend the programme of lectures on the theme Homer in the World. Lectures will be given by Members of Academies, Professors of Universities, and others, principally in Modern Greek (possibly with English summaries), but also in English, French or in any other language provided that an English summary can be handed out. Some general lectures will be common to all participants.

The programme also contains educational tours and visits together with the participants of the other sessions.
N.B. Participants who wish to give a lecture in the Scholars’ / Hellenists’ Programme are kindly requested to communicate the topic and the language in which it will be given to Dr. Maria-Eleftheria Giatrakou. They must also send an English summary of the lecture to be photocopied and handed out, and a brief CV.

c) Modern Greek Programme
This programme will be devoted to Modern Greek language, with intensive courses morning and afternoon, under the direction of qualified professors. All participants of this session will participate with the other ones in educational tours and visits as well.
