Final information about the programme, bus, metros and the hotel in Athens will be sent in June.

a) Students' Programme

Students with at least some acquaintance with Homeric/Ancient Greek will have the opportunity to improve their knowledge of Homer's poems and their historical context on Homer's homeland!

- Students will attend their lectures and lessons mainly at the Homerion Cultural Centre in Chios (and in different places on the excursion days).
- The programme will be directed by Prof. John Thorley (GB) assisted by Dr. Antony Makrinos (GR/GB).
- The programme will include classes on Homer, Iliad, 6.
- It will also include lectures and seminars on Homeric topics, Mycenaean and Trojan archaeology, as well as Greek/Chian epigraphy and history.
- Lessons and lectures will be conducted in English.
- An introduction to traditional dances will be offered.
- The programme also contains educational tours and visits together with the participants of the other sessions.

N.B. A text of Iliad 6 and vocabulary notes will be sent in advance by e-mail to students who will be attending the Academia HomERICA and have sent their e-mail address to Prof. Thorley (jt275@etherway.net). Students should bring printed copies of these with them to Greece. It will be useful if they also bring with them a translation of the Iliad into their own language.

b) Scholars' / Hellenists' Session

Scholars and Hellenists can attend the programme of lectures on the theme Homer in the World. Lectures will be given by Members of Academies, Professors of Universities, and others, principally in Modern Greek (possibly with English summaries), but also in English, French or in any other language provided that an English summary can be handed out.

Some general lectures will be common to all participants.

The programme also contains educational tours and visits together with the participants of the other sessions.

N.B. Participants who wish to give a lecture in the Scholars' / Hellenists' Programme are kindly requested to communicate the topic and the language in which it will be given to Dr. Maria-Eleftheria Giatrakou. They must also send an English summary of the lecture to be photocopied and handed out, and a brief CV.

d) Modern Greek Programme

This programme will be devoted to Modern Greek language, with intensive courses morning and afternoon, under the direction of qualified professors.

All participants of this session will participate with the other ones in educational tours and visits as well.
